DESCRIPTION:

* Speakers are responsible for their own expenses, including meeting registration and travel expenses. In the event that the AUA is forced to convert the Practice Management Program from live in-person to a live virtual course, due to circumstances outside of their control, including but not limited to, acts of God, war, government regulation or advisory, acts or threats of terrorism, strikes or threat of strikes, transportation or travel restrictions or disruptions or public health emergencies or other circumstances that would make it impossible, illegal, or commercially impracticable to proceed with the in-person course, all content will be converted to the live virtual course. The AUA will not refund individual airline tickets, or travel costs. AUA and/or its official housing partner onPeak, will not refund hotel costs for reservations made OUTSIDE of the AUA's official housing block.
